This drawing depict that there is a hot pot,where has so much many cultural element's food.These cultural element can be divided two part:one is the western,other is the Chinese.And it write a word:A cultural hot put is not only delicious but also healthy.

I think it is our society or ourself. When a community has all kinds of culture,it's development just become better and quicker.It inculde old and new culture,the western and Chinese,the lecture and math,and so on.Only in this way can the community become better.And,I think it has a vitally important significance for us to grow.We ought learn to know a variety of civilization.

In a word,it gives us a lesson that culture's variety is benefit us and our country,so we should learn to embrace a colorful world id have more knowledge.
